PROGRAM DESCRIPTIONS

- "Doin' the Beaver Walk": Explore the world of the web-footed, paddle-tailed, chisel-toothed beavers living at Mt. Tom. Families welcome. Explorations begin at the Warming Hut at Lake Bray. Free with a $2 per car entrance fee.
- "Hiking the Jurassic": Join Mt. Tom Interpreter and Geologist Steve Winters to examine the dinosaur-friendly environment recorded in Mt. Tom's 200-million-year-old rocks. Meet at the Stone House Visitors Center. Free with a $2 per car entrance fee.
- "Mt. Tom Hawk Walk": Join Mt. Tom Naturalist Steve Winters on hike to one of Mt. Tom's famous hawk-viewing towers and vistas. Binoculars and raptor guides provided or bring your own. Meet at the Stone House Visitors Center. Free with a $2 per car entrance fee.
- "Senior Hike": This hike is for visitors age 55 and up. We take a leisurely walk on one or more of our easier trails. Hikes begin at the Stone House Visitors Center.
- "Tea Time at Tom": Do you prefer conversation to perambulation? Then Tea Time at Tom is for you. We sit outside the Stone House and talk about nature, the world, and practically anything else. Free tea, lemonade, and cookies!
- "Children's Story Time at the Stone House": Everyone loves a good story. Join Mt. Tom Interpreter Steve Winters as he reads animal and nature stories outdoors or in the "Kids Corner" of the Stone House Visitor Center.
